1st November 2023

Dear parents and carers,

All schools in Devon have received an email today regarding the severe weather warning across the county tomorrow, a warning that experts are concerned will change to a red warning over night.

The advice is to seriously consider the high level of risk presented by this storm, and its unpredictability, and make a decision today about operations tomorrow, while also advising all staff work from home.

Due to this, we will be CLOSING THE SCHOOL AND NURSERY TOMORROW, THURSDAY 2ND NOVEMBER. We do not wish to put our children or staff at unnecessary risk.

We are sorry for the short notice of this closure, but we have acted as soon as possible.

Kind regards,

Maria White
Headteacher
